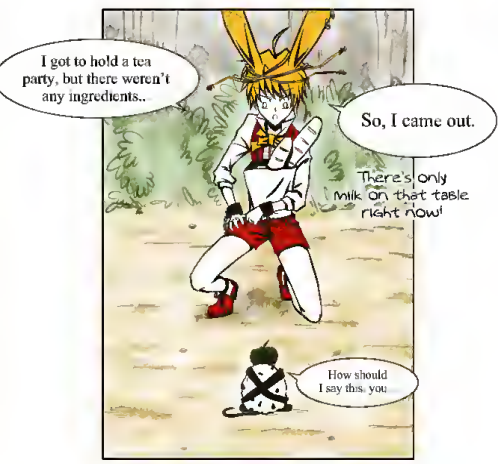
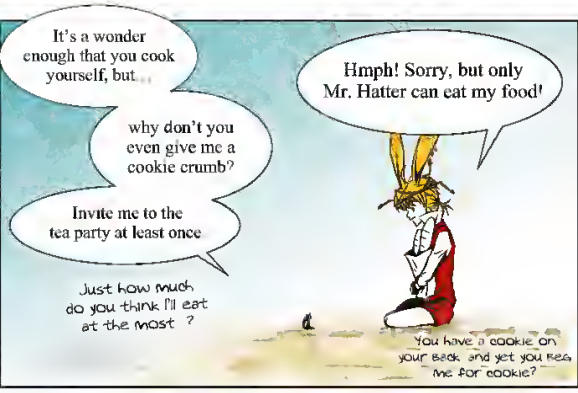
CHAPTER 14 - THE SOUND THAT WAKES YOU UP !



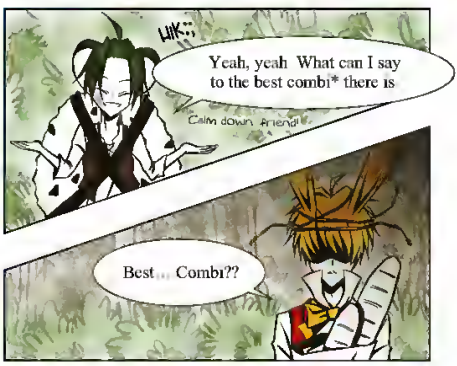
I got to hold a tea party, but there weren't any ingredients..
So, I came out.
There's only milk on that table right now!
How should I say this, you

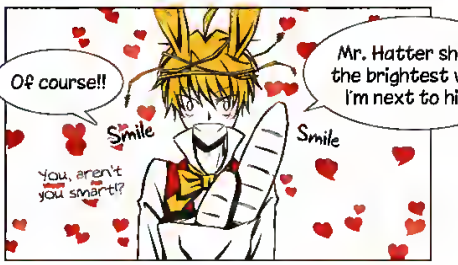
You, how did you end up like that…?

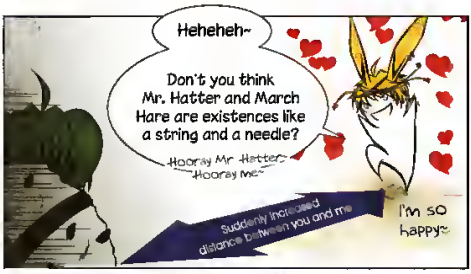


It's a wonder enough that you cook yourself, but...
why don't you even give me a cookie crumb?
Invite me to the tea party at least once
Just how much do you think I'll eat at the most ?
Hmph! Sorry, but only Mr. Hatter can eat my food!
You have a cookie on your back and yet you beg me for cookie?

MISTY RAIN



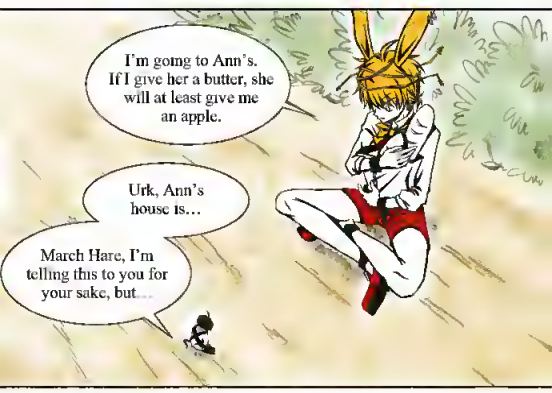




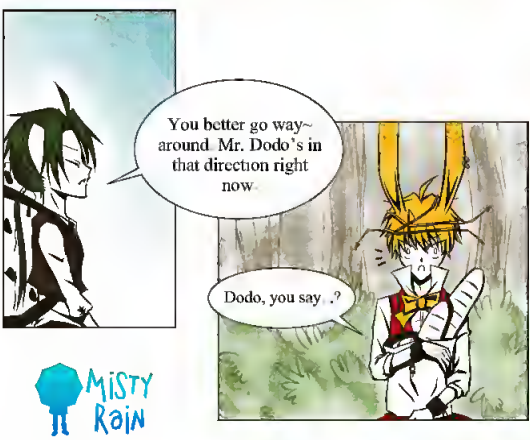
Heheheh~
Don't you think Mr. Hatter and March Hare are existences like a string and a needle?
Hooray Mr Hatter~ Hooray me~
Suddenly increased distance between you and me
I'm so happy~

Yeah... the best... as mad combi that is...

As I thought you and I get along!
No, it's not that we get along, but I'm just good at dealing with things
Thank goodness you're simple
I'll give you at least one piece of leftover apple pie! Look forward to it!!
Gee, thanks...
Huh?? Apple??
Apple pie? Was there an apple tree nearby?



I'm going to Ann's. If I give her a butter, she will at least give me an apple.
Urk, Ann's house is...
March Hare, I'm telling this to you for your sake, but...



You better go way~ around. Mr. Dodo's in that direction right now.
Dodo, you say..?

Ah... Yeah... I shouldn't do that Hm??

If I die...

There's no one left who can look after Mr. Hatter...

Can't be helped! Even if it takes time, I should go way~ around to avoid that bastard Dodo.
I said, be careful with what you say!

I should run then!!
I got to arrive before Mr. Hatter snaps!

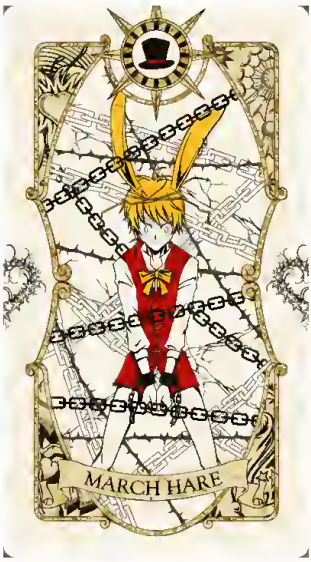
CF

"As mad as a hatter" and "as mad as a March Hare" are commonly used idioms of that time, and Lewis Carroll made the characters, the Hatter and March Hare, from these idioms. Before the hatter, there was an idiom "as mad as a ladder seller."



MISTY RAIN

Today, Mr. Hatter is....
starving as he waits for March Mommy.
Your small care can fill the stomach of the starving young man.
Please give a warm helping hand...
Mom, when are you coming? TTTT
I'm hungry.
Please give me some tasty star cookies. TTTT TTTT
